FEMA Disaster Recovery Center Opens Attleboro

FRAMINGHAM, MA – A Disaster Recovery Center (DRC) is now open in Attleboro, Bristol County. The joint DRC is a temporary facility established in partnership between Massachusetts and FEMA that will help survivors from the severe storms and flooding that took place from Sept. 11-13, 2023. Disaster assistance specialists at the center can help residents apply for FEMA Individual Assistance, upload documents needed for their application and answer questions in person.

The DRC is located at:

Bristol Community College

1 Willard Road

Attleboro, MA 02703

Monday – Saturday, 9:00 a.m. – 7:00 p.m.

You do not need an appointment to visit a DRC.

FEMA specialists and representatives from the U.S. Small Business Administration, which can provide low-interest disaster loans to survivors, will be on hand to discuss available assistance.

Those affected by the disaster do not have to visit a DRC in order to apply. Survivors can also register in one of the following ways:

- Online at DisasterAssistance.gov. The FEMA website is accessible and includes language translation options.
- By phone at 1-800-621-3362. Press 1 for English, 2 for Spanish and 3 for all other languages. If you use video relay service (VRS), captioned telephone service or others, give FEMA your number for that service. Phone lines operate from 7 a.m. to 10 p.m. seven days a week.
- Download FEMA's Mobile App. Select Disaster Resources and click on Apply for Assistance Online.

Centers are accessible to people with disabilities or who may not speak English well or need American Sign Language (ASL) interpretation services. The facilities are equipped with assistive technology equipment, including, Video Remote Interpreting, large print or braille material, TTY and amplified listening systems. If you need a reasonable accommodation, sign language interpreter, or translation or interpreter assistance, please let a FEMA specialist at the center know. If a disaster survivor cannot travel to the DRC, FEMA can arrange a home visit.
